1. Welcome to the World of Bio-Resonance According to Paul Schmidt

1.1 Paul Schmidt – a Short Biography

Paul Schmidt

Only very few people have the privilege of changing the world as vigorously as Paul Schmidt has done in his time. His brilliant ideas, flowing into more than 300 granted patents, give evidence of his ingenuity and creativity.

Paul Schmidt was born in Altenhundem, Sauerland, on the 31st of October, 1922. His childhood was overshadowed by the early death of his father, forcing the remaining family to lead a modest life dominated by the need for improvisation. He developed great technical skills at an early stage and consequently found himself learning an engineering profession. His first job as an engineer involved the development of agricultural machinery, after which he founded his own company, Tracto-Technik. Giving free rein to his commitment to social and cultural matters in the years of building up his enterprise, he was consequently awarded the Bundesverdienstkreuz (Order of the Federal Republic of Germany).

His social conscience never hampered him, quite the opposite, it was particularly his desire to help other people which made way to a basic approach in alternative medicine and finally to bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt. In 1982, he founded the company Rayonex Schwingungstechnik (oscillation technology), devoted to the development of new ideas for alternative medicine. Until the 2nd of August, 1994, the date of his death, he remained true to his social commitment. He designed books for children and donated them to schools and kindergartens.

1.2 Bio-Resonance According to Paul Schmidt – an Alternative Therapy Method Asserts Itself

Bio-resonance, particularly bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt, is easily explained by means of an example from nature.

Surely, the oldest kind of biological resonance is our sunlight. If the sunlight touches our skin, regulations are triggered. The reason for this is not the heating up of the skin, but the ultraviolet rays contained in sunlight. This can only mean, the ultraviolet rays are able to encourage the generation of pigments.

A regulation system is integrated in our skin which starts pigmentation when exposed to these specific frequencies of sunlight, causing the tone of our skin to appear tanned. Pigmentation of the skin is only one of the regulations triggered by the sunlight, another one is the stimulation of vitamin D production.

It is not hard to comprehend that other frequencies exist beside the narrow frequency band of sunlight, and these also trigger off their own regulations. Back in the year of 1976, it was Paul Schmidt, who realised these connections. He established the exogenous (affecting from outside) bio-resonance which bears his name today. The special emphasis of the method lies in the elimination of causal health influences like geopathy, electro-magnetic pollution, an unbalanced diet etc.

In Germany alone, more than 5500 naturopaths and doctors working on a natural basis apply the bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt. The break-through was enabled with the professional device of the Rayonex company, the Rayocomp PS 1000 polar.

1.3 The New Rayonex Company Building – Designed as a Pyramid

The Rayonex Schwingungstechnik GmbH in Lennestadt-Meggen employs 38 staff members at present. Because of a sharply increased demand on the export sector, with a special focus on the European and Asiatic markets, the business enterprise called for extension.

Extraordinary products deserve an extraordinary presentation. Therefore the pyramid shape was selected for the company building. After all, just like the pyramids, the bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt still has so many secrets to reveal – a very exciting assignment for the future. The Main Pyramid provides sufficient space for future developments, production and sales. At present, the slightly smaller Event Pyramid is used for teaching, seminars, lectures and training courses for student groups from our country or from abroad. The school for naturopaths belonging to the Paul-Schmidt-Academy is also housed in the Event Pyramid. Please visit our homepage: www.paul-schmidt-akademie.de. Every visitor on this homepage can take part in a free trial lesson!

On the 31st of October - the birth date of Paul Schmidt - the third Pyramid, accommodating the therapy centre, was completed.

Following the holistic approach of the bio-resonance, the pyramids were built on interference-free grounds, the risk of electro-magnetic radiation for the staff was reduced to a minimum, the integration of a geothermal heating system, solar concepts and a system for recycling rainwater ensure the environment-friendly handling of precious resources.

The interior of the pyramids is fully illuminated by full spectral light, the work places can be adapted to individual needs in so far as temperature, light and ventilation are concerned. The Sauerland-Pyramids are an impressive symbol for the holistic attitude of the Rayonex company; we do not use words alone, we also live up to them. Therefore, even with business increasing considerably, modern production technology, patent rights and a quality management system according to DIN EN ISO 9001 and DIN EN 13485 assure the high quality standard of the Rayonex products.

The new Rayonex company buildings, the Sauerland-Pyramids, in Lennestadt-Meggen. The main pyramid can be seen on the right, the event pyramid on the left, accommodating the school for naturopaths, is a bit smaller!

1.4 The Book on Bio-Resonance According to Paul Schmidt

The first step back to health recovery should not necessarily be a therapy! It lies in our own responsibility to eliminate disturbance fields, thus taking the first step forward towards recovering and maintaining our health.

But what kind of holistic method is suitable for finding out whether the causal disturbance is due to electro-magnetic pollution, geological disturbance fields, bacteria, viruses or parasites? What about the state of our acid-base balance? Is there a lack of minerals, trace elements or other important nutritional compounds in our organism? How can we find out whether the principle nutrient, our daily water, has the quality to satisfy the needs of the body?

In this book, written in a logical and easy to comprehend, manner the reader comes closer to the holistic approach of Bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt. The special focus of all explanations is placed on a reliable conversion of the written word into practice. With the help of many examples, a sound foundation of basic knowledge is established, so we can move on to the methods of testing and harmonising from there. These are easily learnt and applied.

True to the holistic approach, the causal influences mentioned before are discussed. On this basis, the book goes into detail concerning the therapeutic possibilities of Bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt. Testing and harmonising the energy status, the body polarities and the Chakras are part of this spectrum. They are followed by solutions for recognising deficits in organ systems and restoring their equilibrium. Also, a method is introduced to face a complex illness in all its features. We become familiar with preparation and drug tests, allergen tests and harmonisation are introduced. In order to include body substances like blood, saliva, urine etc. in the therapy concept, another focus is placed on the transfer of energetic structures to the organism or to suitable carrier substances. Finally, special areas of Bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt are addressed. For instance there is acupuncture oscillation therapy for stimulating or sedating the meridian points using frequencies instead of needles. The book also contains a chapter about the application of bio-resonance in veterinary medicine, particularly for horses and dogs.

An appendix comprising over 200 pages completes this book; here you can find all lists, tables and copy patterns required for working with Bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt. There, for example, you can find frequency tables for human as well as veterinary medical application, check-up lists, the frequency atlas of the human body, frequencies of the periodical system of the elements and such of pathogen, more than 30 elaborate control plans of the human organism, the 14 meridians with illustrations of the acupuncture points and their corresponding frequencies as well as many other interesting details.

The book is intended for members of the healing profession and their patients but also for other users and all people with a preference for holistic, gentle, alternative medical approaches.

Important information concerning training:

On the homepage: www.paul-schmidt-akademie.de you will find a product information portal covering the topic bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt for your free usage. After online registration, many interesting topics like over-acidity, discharging, intestinal colonisation by harmful bacteria etc., an online seminar and other video clips with valuable tips and tricks are available to you. This portal offers information around the clock, you can gain access at any time of the day or night. Please test our portal! We are sure you are going to love it!

Bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt has taken giant steps forward in recent years. Meanwhile, appropriate bio-resonance devices are applied in the single practices of doctors dedicated to natural healing methods and naturopaths, but that is not all, even complete therapy centres are based on the method. This break-through was enabled by the professional device from the Rayonex company, the Rayocomp PS 1000 polar. Often, however, the employment of this kind of high-med device is not really practical, when therapists pay home visits to their patients, for instance, or users want to take advantage of the bio-resonance method in private.

The new Rayocomp PS 10 is the ideal instrument for the first steps into the world of bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt. Also, it is an ideal, portable bio-resonance device for professionals. It replaces the Rayometer PS 10 and the Rayometer Digital, of which more than 17,000 have been built. This device meets the demands made by bio-resonance according to Paul Schmidt in an ideal fashion.

2.1 Application Fields for the Rayocomp PS 10

Supporting the cause-related approach: In general, it makes sense to reduce disturbances affecting the body. Fundamental frequency values for evaluating the influence of electro-magnetic pollution, geological disturbance zones or over-acidity, for instance, are available.

The Vital Substances Test:

Frequency spectra for determining the status of minerals, trace elements, vitamins and probiotic intestinal bacteria are at your disposal. They help you to gain information concerning an over- or under-supply of these elements.

Prevention / Energy Balance:

This basic regulation program can help you to restore your vitality. The harmonising programs of the Rayocomp PS 10 contain the frequency spectra of healthy organs, among others. Within the bounds of prevention, they can be a great benefit for keeping the organism healthy.

Auto-Secretory Therapy with the PS 10:

Bodily secretions like urine, stool, sputum etc. contain substances and pathogens which can be used for harmonising. The Rayocomp PS 10 allows you to use the frequency patterns of your own secretion for harmonising the body.

Bach Flowers:

A fundamental frequency value for every single Bach Flower is available. This allows you to employ the Rayo-comp PS 10 for determining the Bach Flowers which are exactly right for you.

Acupuncture:

Meanwhile, a frequency value is available for every single acupuncture point. Via their end points, we can determine, which one of the channels requires harmonisation. You can choose from 14 different channel programs.

Children:

Special programs for children can be used to support them in times of extreme nervousness or when they are having problems to concentrate.

Veterinary Medicine:

Extensive frequency spectra are available for testing and harmonising horses, dogs and cats.
